

PRAYER LETTER

AXELSON UPDATE

JULY 2006

PRAISES

- David arrived safely in PNG on the 22nd of June. It has been great to have him here. He has helped out in many ways at aviation.
- Enough rain during the dry season to keep our water tanks from drying out.
- Good visit with the family that took care of us during village living. It was great to see them again and to introduce them to David.
- Safe travel to Goroka to pick David up, to Madang, and to Kainantu.
- Chance to become a support family for the Engkvists – friends from Sweden working as translators on Ferguson Island.
- We are moving on July 10th and can stay there until the end of the school year. Rachel gets a dog and a cat to look after.

PRAYER REQUESTS

- David's safe travel back to Niceville on July 16th and back to college in August.
- A smooth move as we move just a week before school starts up.
- Please pray for the nation and the people of Papua New Guinea. It is a young nation facing many struggles. Pray for Christian leaders and for the Word that has been translated to take root in people's hearts.
- Rachel as she begins school. She is transitioning after many years of home schooling.
- Jim as he takes on more responsibility as the assistant director of aviation.
- Michele teaching after ten years out of the classroom.
- For Michele's mom as she is being scheduled for a hip replacement.
