Re: Steve and Glenda Kvale

To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Steve and Glenda Kvale for several years. Steve's mom and dad were part of New Testament Church. I had the opportunity to get to know Steve after he returned home from Christ for the Nations Institute. He participated in church programs, did some drama and played on the worship team. Steve always demonstrated a sincere love for God. He modeled his life after the teachings of Scripture and sought to please the Lord. He was honest and genuine and humble. He was teachable. He liked people.

Steve and Glenda and their family have lived in Marshall for a number of years now. My contacts with them have been few. But they continue to demonstrate the qualities I saw in Steve years before: humility, love for the Lord, a gentleness of spirit, and compassion.

I am excited about this opportunity for them to serve with Wycliffe. I believe they will serve with their whole hearts and will be a great blessing to those they work with, as well as rendering much needed help in the work of language and Bible translation.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,
